Amélie-Lou BLOUIN

Associate, rory.legal
Avocate at the Paris Bar

A member of the Paris Bar, Amélie-Lou joined the firm in 2024 after practising with a leading US law firm. Specialising in domestic and international arbitration, she acts as counsel for clients across a wide range of sectors, including the aerospace, construction, energy and luxury industries. She also advises on complex business law matters, including post-M&A litigation.

Amélie-Lou has particular experience of arbitration proceedings conducted under the aegis of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID). She has also gained experience acting as Tribunal Secretary in a bilingual ICC commercial arbitration.

After having grown up in Western Africa and Northern Africa, Amélie-Lou obtained a double Master's degree in English law and French law from King's College London and Université Panthéon-Sorbonne (Paris 1), as well as a double degree in global business law and governance from City University of Hong Kong and Université Panthéon-Sorbonne (Paris 1). To further her dual legal training, she is currently taking the Solicitors Qualifying Examination (SQE) to become qualified in England & Wales.
