Marie VALENTINI

Partner

Member of the Paris Bar

Called to the Bar of England and Wales

Marie Valentini is a member of the Paris Bar and has been called to the Bar of England and Wales. She assists and represents French and foreign companies in domestic and international, institutional and ad hoc, commercial arbitration proceedings subject to French (and other civil) and English laws. She also acts as arbitrator. She has extensive experience of arbitration-related litigation before the French courts and in particular of proceedings to set awards aside and appeals against exequatur orders.

Her practice notably focuses on the defence, telecoms, banking and transport sectors, in post-acquisition disputes, shareholders disputes, disputes relating to agency and services agreements and disputes raising EU sanctions issues.

A former representative of the International Chamber of Commerce's Young Arbitration and ADR Forum (ICC YAAF) for the European Chapter (2021-2024), Marie is also a member of several arbitration practitioners' associations, including CFA40 and YIAG. She also authored a number of publications on arbitration and is a regular speaker at conferences and university courses.

Marie's arbitration practice has been recognised by several international rankings, including Legal 500 EMEA (Rising Star, 2024), WWL (Future Leader, since 2023) and Best Lawyers (since 2021).
